

INAUGURAL 2024 APPA

Women's Leadership Program

A professional leadership opportunity for Primary Principals

CANBERRA / TUESDAY 8 & WEDNESDAY 9 OCTOBER 2024

Her Excellency, the Honourable
Ms Sam Mostyn AC

Senator the Honourable
Sue Lines

Professor Genevieve Bell

Ms Jo White

On this 2-day immersive leadership experience meet and learn from women who are the leaders in the civics, history, STEM and education fields at Canberra's premier National Cultural institutions.

Hearing personal stories from Her Excellency the Governor-General, the President of the Senate, the Australian National University Vice-Chancellor and the Director of Questacon, gaining insights about their professional experiences and the challenges of leadership in a contemporary diverse workplace.

While visiting Canberra's world class institutions get up close and personal with their education resources, meet their Education Managers and network with your colleagues.

Interstate Participants: $905 per person

Covers accommodation at Hotel Kurrajong (Monday and Tuesday nights) transfers between venues, group dinner Tuesday night, 2 lunches and entry into attractions.

Local Participants: $395 per person

Covers Transfers between venues, group dinner Tuesday night, 2 lunches and entry into attractions.

NB Transport to and from Canberra not included.

Senator Dorothy Tangney and Dame Enid Lyons entering the front door of Old Parliament
House in 1943. AUSTRALIAN
WAR MEMORIAL 139712

Bronze statues of Dame Dorothy Tangney and
Dame Enid Lyons, sculpted by Lis Johnson, and inspired by that iconic 1943 photograph.

Don't miss out!
Only 20 spaces available.

Scan the QR code to register ➔

Australian Primary Principals Association